8th Tashkent Water Security Forum

"From Knowledge to Action: Enhancing Science and Policy Dialogue for Improved Water Security in Central Asia"

The Tashkent Water Security Forum is a dedicated platform bringing together scientists, policymakers, practitioners, and regional stakeholders to share research findings, exchange perspectives, and support informed decision-making on water governance and climate adaptation. The 2026 Forum theme, "From Knowledge to Action: Enhancing Science and Policy Dialogue for Improved Water Security in Central Asia," underscores the urgent need to translate scientific evidence into practical policies and joint actions.
